

An Invitation

An Interactive Session on Climate Change with South Asian journalists

on November 17, 2009

at Rotary Sadan, Room # 103, 94 / 2, Chowringhee Road , Kolkata 700020 at 3-5pm.

DFID in collaboration with Panos South Asia with local support from CSM, is organizing a group of journalists from Nepal, Bangladesh, and India on a road trip from the Himalaya to the Bay of Bengal, helping them to see and discuss the effects of Climate Change on people across this region, and various climate change initiatives.

On this occasion we would like to invite you, as a key stakeholder on climate change in Kolkata, to an interactive session with the group of journalists on the challenges of climate change in our country.

The programme is scheduled to be held on Tuesday, 17th November 2009 at the Rotary Sadan, 94/2, Chowringhee Road at 3 pm.

Kindly confirm your participation at the earliest possible.

Thanking You.
Warm Regards,

Centre for Social Markets (CSM)
