

UK-INDIA BUSINESS LEADERSHIP ON CLIMATE CHANGE

Please join us for a kick-off seminar for this initiative hosted by Mr Peter Luff MP, Chairman, Business and Enterprise Committee, House of Commons, London.

India Inc. is beginning to move on climate change. Come and hear from some of India's leading corporates on what they are doing on climate change and why they see it as an agenda of opportunity. The session will also explore practical opportunities for UK-India business partnership on climate change.

Thursday, 26 June, 2008 • 11:30am - 1:30pm

Houses of Parliament
House of Commons, Committee Room 10, London
(Access through Cromwell Green entrance)

A joint initiative by
Centre for Social Markets and Tomorrow's Company

Media Partner :

Businessworld

www.businessworld.in

PROGRAMME

Co-chairs

Mr Tony Manwaring, CEO, Tomorrow's Company
Ms Malini Mehra, Founder & CEO, Centre for Social Markets

Speakers

HSBC India

Ms Malini Thadani, Head Group Communications and Corporate Sustainability

The Tata Group

Dr Paul Brooks, Director, Environment & Climate Change, Corus
Mr Brian Woodford, Director of Public Sector (UK & Ireland), Tata Consultancy Services (TCS)

The Mahindra Group

Mr Rajeev Dubey, President, HR, After-Market & Corporate Services;
Chairman, Group CSR Council & Sustainability Council

Unilever PLC

Ms Anita Kumar, Manager Unilever Brand and Corporate Responsibility, Hindustan Unilever Ltd.
Ms Rose Fenn, Corporate Responsibility Manager, Unilever PLC / NV

BT Group

Dr Chris Tuppen, Director of Sustainability

Respondents

Ms Sarah Best, Private Sector Policy Adviser, Oxfam GB
Dr Tauni Lanier, Director, Eco-Capital

TO REGISTER: Please email Ms Sumana Das at: sumana@csmworld.org
Space is limited for this event and seats will be assigned strictly on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Speaker profiles can be downloaded shortly from CSM and Tomorrow's Company's websites:
www.csmworld.org • www.tomorrowcompany.com